Board Review Self-Assessment

Drawing upon diverse sources, the 1,500 questions and answers in Board Review Self-Assessment will help clinicians as they prepare for pain medicine board certification exams, based upon the curriculum of the American Board of Medical Specialties pain medicine examinations. The questions follow the key-question format found on the ABMS exam. They reflect the entire curriculum found in the companion books, Volume I: Foundations of Pain Medicine and Interventional Pain Management: A Comprehensive Review as well as Volume II: Clinical Aspects of Pain Medicine and Interventional Pain Management: Comprehensive Review. Following appropriate principles of question writing, the questions contained in Board Review Self-Assessment recreate the type of questions encountered on board examinations. In addition, complete, thorough explanations for every answer are provided, giving readers an additional didactic resource for studying for the board exams. Board Review Self-Assessment will give clinicians confidence as they prepare for their board exams.
