Elliot's Shipwreck (Elliot Moose Story) Andrea Beck

After dreaming of high seas adventures, Elliot Moose decides that he and his best friend, Socks, should build their very own ship. Together they raid the kitchen to collect parts for their boat. Then off they go to the pond to build their ship. The morning is packed with exciting adventures but, as Elliot and Socks settle down to eat a picnic lunch, they realize their ship is sinking -- and they're stranded in the middle of the pond! Suddenly sailing isn't fun anymore. What are they to do? Elliot's Shipwreck is a delightful story about imaginative play, the value of friendship and navigating through life's little predicaments.
