Collector's Guide to Kodak Cameras Joan McKeown, James McKeown

Millions of people own antique Kodak cameras, and this is the first comprehensive guide which describes and illustrates most of these family heirlooms. Large, clear photos and easy-to-use index make it an ideal guide for the novice or expert alike. Identification features have been included for each camera model as well as technical specifications and original prices. Covers Kodak and Brownie still cameras from the first Kodak of 1888 to the Pocket Instamatics and instant cameras in 1981. Does not include movie cameras.
