What do a waitress on Long Island, an interior decorator in New Jersey, and an attorney in the Hudson Valley of New York have in common? They believe human souls are predisposed to seek God, and by doing so, journey with the souls of others on the pathway to Him. They support their beliefs with numerous examples of extraordinary spirit encounters and otherwise unexplainable events. Tracy's journey begins as a child. Her claims of nightly spirit visitations gain credibility when older sister Laura shares an incredible encounter with her. As Tracy matures, she has dreams and visions and struggles to incorporate them into her daily life.

Laura becomes a successful yet unfulfilled business woman. While away from her family, she succumbs to an invisible force that propels her into an emotional and spiritual cleansing. Their friend Cheryl loses control of her car on an icy roadway. She surrenders her destiny to God as the car plunges into a snow-covered pond.

God sends the women assurances after the deaths of their mothers, and they come by way of coins, crosses, and angels. Through immensely personal accounts of life-altering events, the authors encourage readers to reflect on their own spiritual journeys, break through the fear that prevents enlightenment, and be open to the many and varied methods of communication with God. Their relatable stories are perfect entrées into how to do so!
