Rome of the Caesars (Bonechi Travel Guides) Leonardo B.Dal Maso

This manual attempts to reconstruct Rome at the time of the Caesars: how its great historical events took place and what its private and public life was like. The author extracts his information from the archaeological evidence of today, despite the problems of the papal and modern city being superimposed on the ancient ruins. The book should be a useful companion to a visit to Rome, and encourages the reader to explore the hidden past.
