The Observer: the ultimate journey within Mr Michael A Johnson

This is a story about a man who has watched his life crumble apart over several years including the loss of his infant son at the hands of an unscrupulous doctor who had the ethics of a lying thirteen year old. Experience his growing frustration with a self serving society that shows no emotion to his tragedies and a religion that offers no hope or explanation; but, freely offers judgment and criticism. Travel with him as he finds himself unexplainably trapped on a deserted island with no remembrance as to how he got there. Share in his feelings of isolation. Experience his disbelief as he discovers he is not alone but actually trapped on this island with God. Observe as he challenges God face to face with questions like “Why do bad things happen? Why are there tragedies in our lives? How can you call yourself a loving God and idly sit back and observe our misery?” Witness the surprising and shocking answers that God tells him. Feel his emotions as he releases a lifetime of hurt on a journey of healing, hope, and discovery. Experience his eye opening revelation that allows him to receive love and acceptance. A journey that will lead him to discover who is truly watching whom and who the real observer is in his life. A journey that releases fear from his life. Rest with him as he discovers who he is and his purpose in life.
