The Secrets of Winning Bridge Jeff Rubens

If you've played bridge a while and read most of the standard books, you probably consider yourself a pretty knowledgeable bridge player. This book will show you how limited your knowledge may really be. It gives more expert advice on topics most other books treat cursorily, or not at all, than you may have thought possible. Once you master this advice, you will have more insight into bridge judgment than almost 99% of all other players. The reason for this is that this book puts into print what master players have been doing at the table for years.
