A soldier's wind carried Jason to Jamaica for wealth, passion and war. Recovering in London from wounds received in action against an American privateer, Jason enjoys the experiences of life in London.

Commissioned as Lieutenant he is appointed to a frigate where tensions are high, violence on board leaves him in command. On arrival in Jamaica he is transferred to command a schooner. Being in possession of private means he sets up a mistress in Kingston, and later marries the daughter of a plantation owner.
