Interactive Journal for Girls Tamyra D. Crossley

This journal will give you a place to explore some of your favorite things, thoughts, ideas and dreams. Along the way you will have fun activities to complete, just to keep things interesting. It will bring you to the... Past: To look back and remember some of the things that made you who you are today. A place to explore the events, experiences, and people who have impacted your young life. Present: Time to stop and play. We will explore what is that you really like to do and what/who is important to you today. Future: Time to dream... and explore all you want to do as you grow to be an adult. Time to start making plans toward the bright future you someday want. Sometimes staring at a blank journal can be daunting. So I have given you prompts and activities. Get ready for an adventure... you will be encouraged to do fun activities, reflect on special memories and explore new ideas and thoughts. It is all about the experience of you! Someday... years from now (when you are older), you will be able to look back at these pages and remember specific events and what you were feeling at that moment in time. At the end of this journal and journey, you will have a better idea of exactly who you are today, who you want to be tomorrow and what is important to you. Most of all... I hope you enjoy the experience of celebrating you!
