The Essential Handbook of Weaving Rosemary Murray

This is a concise and practical guide to the age-old art of weaving for beginners and more advanced weavers alike. The book begins with the simplest frame loom (easily improvised from a Styrofoam meat tray) and progressing right on to sophisticated floor looms. Step-by-step photos and line drawings make the directions easy to follow. There are tips for repairing errors, as well as ideas for incorporating techniques such as printing, painting and tie-dyeing into your weaving projects. The Essential Handbook of Weaving includes 33 pattern drafts with threading plans, a bibliography, glossary and list of suppliers.
