Journey Into Solitude: From Priest-Professor to Hermit-Heretic Richard W Kropf

Written from both his notes and memories, this book recalls the life of a priest and theologian who left behind both parish ministry and college teaching to pursue his life-long dream of living in solitude, contemplating both life's major questions and Christianity's ongoing efforts to answer them. Following the map of life described by the unknown author of "The Cloud of Unknowing", in the end, the critical reader is likely to be surprised.
