Many speak of The End of Days but some want to bring it about. When a parchment scroll of Revelation, supposedly looted from a first century scriptorium and paleographically dated to the 60s CE, turns up in Jordan, Ben Gage is sent by his boss, chaplain to the American president but too busy with Israeli-Palestinian peace negotiations to go himself, to establish the scroll's authenticity. After confronting the 2,000 year old text, very different from the New Testament version he knows and suggestive of an alternate interpretation, Ben learns the man who found it has disappeared inside Syria and that his friends, a Kurdish antiquities dealer and his enigmatic daughter, have decided their only hope of saving the ancient library is to rescue the man who knows the clue to its location. More because of his experience with firearms than his expertise in biblical languages, Ben is invited to come along on the raid. But nothing in his past has prepared him to overcome what he will face on the road to Armageddon.
