Sarah Songan is a woman on the run. In an attempt to find peace with their neighbours, the Apsáalooke chief has promised her hand to a soldier at Fort Smith, and Sarah's determined not to be traded or bartered like an ornament. She strikes out on her own, leaving behind everyone and everything she has ever known. However, a woman travelling alone in 1866 Montana territory can fall prey to unscrupulous men. Sarah must confront her fears and draw on an inner strength she didn't know she had, as well as a new-found hope in God, if she is to survive. Bill Hanover is a tired and lonely cowboy. After four long years fighting in the War Between the States, he returns to his family ranch in Montana only to discover it's no longer his home. He heads south to Cutter's Creek, where he encounters a beautiful woman whose feisty spirit takes his breath away. But she's hiding a secret, and her past is about to catch up with her. Bill turns to God for help and guidance, and encounters a new kind of love. Set in beautiful, wild, and untamed nineteenth century Montana, this novella will take you on a journey back in time to the perilous life of a pioneer on the western frontier.
