Broken Spirit Michelle Blackwater

After a life of being battered and abused, four women set out determined to be free of men for good. They wait until the opportune moment to escape from one of their abusers. On their way out of town, Liz is overcome with temptation and she places the women into a life of crime. Liz's plan was perfect...except for her comrades not liking a life of crime. After a time on the run, all but Liz decide to settle down in the small, up and coming town of Nacogdoches, Texas. They quickly settle in for the long haul. Just when they think all is well, a ghost from the past come back to haunt them.
