A beginner's method which recognizes the problems of the band student and takes him through them in interesting and logical steps. Register development has been given careful consideration so that although much of the material is unison, no instrument is taken out of a beginner's range. All material is melodious, with many songs included. Exercises are short and to the point, so that definite assignments may be made and many players heard individually in a few minutes. Scheduling is made easy, since any combination of instruments may be taught in the same class with satisfactory results.
