Grandparents Rock: The Grandparenting Guide for the Rock-N-Roll Generation Pat Burns

Incredible as it may seem (at least to them!) the largest generation in American history is now grandparents. What's more, for Baby Boomers this transition has a completely different meaning than it's had for past generations. Through their grandchildren, Boomers are reconnecting with their youth rather than saying goodbye to it. And as Pat Burns reveals through scores of interviews with 21st century grandparents, they're finding exciting, truly imaginative ways of learning, growing, and having a ball with the newest members of their families.
