A new title in Edition Didier Millet's 'Chic' travel-and-hotel series (after Mexico Chic), Bali Chic is a guide to the island's most luxurious and alluring hotels, restaurants, shops and spas. All the hotels featured whether a modern boutique hotel, a traditional Balinese homestay or a secluded spa resort are chosen for their unique character and chic appeal. Covering each part of the island in detail, the book offers travellers an engaging, alternative view of Bali. Regional chapters provide an overview of the latest developments and attractions. The hotels, restaurants, shops and spas featured in Bali Chic are represented by a tempting range of images and inspiring narrative. Insights into the style, design and special features of each establishment, and a 'facts box' help readers decide on the establishments that best appeal to them. Contact details for all establishments provide readers with the most fashionable and talked-about addresses on the island.

Highlights Include: Introductions to each chapter highlighting the best of the island's regions; Stunning pictures showcasing the beauty and charm of each hotel, restaurant, shop and spa; Practical information on all establishments; Detailed list of establishments with full contact information.
