A prolific epidemic quickly spreads as it leaves the entire nation torn. The pandemic; people are separating into multiple versions of each other. Why has this new form of creation of life come into existence? At first, the new formation of life promises a noble and exciting future, but with the population of the world doubling every day, global panic increases faster than the world's inhabitants. With no more room on earth, the planet must unite to find a possible way to stop individual detachment and control the panic before life as we know it ceases to exist.
