As you grow in Christlike character, you need to ask the question, "Where can I serve God?" Your past, your interests, your struggles, and your talents can help you discern how God has uniquely designed you to serve.

Of the many books on discerning one's spiritual gifts, most depend on an individual exclusively assessing his or her own abilities. By contrast, in Ministry, your small group helps one another think through his or her Life Vision to find each person's unique niche in the body of Christ. Practice everything you've learned by applying your spiritual formation in tangible ways.
