The Chrononaut Kyle Alexander Romines

The future. Millennia of scientific discovery have led to mankind's greatest feat: the invention of time travel, a technology with a potential for learning and scientific advancement rivaled only by its potential catastrophic consequences. To prevent such outcomes, the world government has carefully restricted the technology, limiting its use and study to a selected few. Dr. Amelia Lewis is a temporal historian charged with uncovering humanity's greatest unsolved historical mysteries during her voyages into the timestream. It is on one of these missions that she witnesses something more terrifying than anything mankind has ever encountered—a monstrous entity that exists outside of time itself. Amelia's journeys into the past have drawn its gaze, and now it seeks to devour her. As she desperately seeks a way a to save herself, Amelia discovers that everyone she cares about is being erased from existence. The fabric of her life is beginning to unravel. Soon, there may not be anything to go back to. BONUS, ALTERNATE ENDING INCLUDED!
