Conversation Pieces; A Survey of the Informal Group Portrait in Europe and America. Mario Praz
The first comprehensive study of the fascinating genre of painting known as 'conversation pieces,' or group portraits usually of small dimensions whose subjects are depicted at a more or less informal moment. The author defines the various types of conversation piece: the family portrait, the group, indoor and outdoor scenes, sporting and musical conversations, etc., and analyzes them in the light of the cultural and social milieu which produced them. Beautifully illustrated, with many important paintings rephotographed especially for this publication.
