El Espiritu Liberador: Hacia una Ttica social pentecostal hispanoamericana Eldin Villafane

La comunidad hispana en los Estados Unidos de América ha tenido, en los últimos años, un crecimiento numérico que ha sido tan significativo como su progresiva marginación social. En este contexto, la iglesia Pentecostal, a partir de su nacimiento como movimiento en 1906, se ha convertido en una presencia relevante. Desde el punto de vista sociológico, es un lugar de supervivencia cultural, un semillero de líderes comunitarios y una suministradora de servicios sociales, que integra un eficaz sistema de apoyo en situaciones de necesidad. Sin embargo, en general, no ha trabajado seriamente en el desarrollo de una ética social auténtica que supere la dimensión meramente comunitaria. El Espíritu liberador constituye un valioso aporte en este sentido, ya que apunta a la construcción de una ética coherente con la experiencia de una iglesia pobre y oprimida, perteneciente a una secta minoritaria en los Estados Unidos, con su herencia cultural, y en concordancia con... su experiencia del Espioacute;ritu.
