Physical therapist Dana VanAlstyne's dreams of a family were lost in the dust of a motocross racecourse. Although she's filled her life with her work and church activities, it hasn't filled the empty space inside her. Nor has it eased the heartache of being abandoned by a man who wasn't ready for a wife and children. Now her dream is to open her own private practice. All she needs is the capital to make that happen. Anton, "Mac," Macachek may be the top professional motocross racer in the country but he still has one race that matters more to him: winning a championship at Unadilla Raceway and showing the hometown folks the bad boy did amount to something. But when a horrific accident sidelines those plans, he makes a deal with the woman he once loved with all his heart. A woman who abandoned him. If Dana will get him back in racing shape, he'll fund her new practice. Then an even more dangerous risk is revealed. If Mac races again, he could die. Does Dana have enough faith to risk her heart again? She loved Mac once, but feared he loved motocross racing more than he loved her. If she helps him mend his broken body, will it also mend her broken heart? Or will it all be lost again in the dust and danger of a motocross racetrack? TEAM MACACHEK: Meet the strong women and fearless men of the motocross circuit.
