Nivea is determined to convince Lord Landis love and betrayal are not synonymous.

The only tangible benefit Dare Landis has of finally claiming the title of Marquis of Raynsforth will be that the current marquis has finally gone to the Devil where he belongs. Until then, Lord Landis will continue to enjoy life on his own terms...as a heartless rake who's beholden to no one.

Nivea Horsham knows there's more to Dare than he reveals to the world. She's loved him since her older brother brought his ridiculously handsome friend home from school all those years ago. But getting him to notice her has proven to be an impossible endeavor.

Is it possible for Nivea to shatter Dare's carefully crafted facade and show him how to love?
