Inspired by the author's experience with vintage American tractors, this work contains 19 original Pop art images and an introductory essay certain to please lovers of tractors, art, and Americana. "My obsession with tractors began in my mid-thirties. After moving to a farm and gaining access to my first machine—a John Deere 850—I've come to understand how integral tractors are to rural living. My pre-school-aged son's obsession with tractors, on the other hand, started early and shows no sign of slowing. He is instinctively drawn to them; his gaze locks and his feet shuffle forward in their presence, as though each machine radiates a force stronger than gravity. Beyond their steadfast utility, tractors possess a charm that borders on the mystical..."
